

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SUBJECT	PAGE
Three-Step Plan Overview	1
Goal of an Interview	1
Three-Step Plan for Applicant	1
Three-Step Plan for New Hires	2
Three-Step Plan for Promotion or Transfer	3
A Quality Employee: What Does It Take?	4
Miscellaneous Facts About Jobs	4
The New Hire--Sample Requirements for a Police Officer	4
Selection Process	4
Overview of Hiring Process	5
Definition of Hiring Process Terms	7
Completing the Job Application	10
Documents Required for a Job Application	10
Background Investigations	11
Job Searches	12
Research of Agencies by Applicants	12
Methods to Acquire Information About an Agency	12
Background on the Agency and Things to Know	12
Résumé (bio) and Job-Related Letters	13
Sample Résumé	14
Job Related Letters	15
Sample Cover Letter	16
Guidelines for Post-Interview Letter	17
Sample Post-Interview Letter	18
Sample Letter for Requesting a Reference	20
The Oral Interview	21
Four Ingredients for a Successful Interview	21
Preparing for the Interview	21
Reasons Applicant Doesn't Get the Job	21
Dress for the Interview	22
Male Attire	22
Female Attire	22
Dress for Success	23

TABLE OF CONTENTS (cont'd)

The Interview Process	25
Introduction to the Panel	25
Taking Your Seat	25
Responding to Questions	26
Completing the Interview	27
What Not to Do in the Oral Interview	27
Reading the Panel Members	28
Nonverbal Cues of the Panel	28
Questions for the Interview Panel	28
Follow-up on the Interview	28
Possible Questions to Ask the Panel	29
Typical Questions at an Oral Interview	30
Typical Questions for New Hire	30
Typical Questions for Promotion	39
Typical Questions for Transfers	46
How to See Through Canned Answers of Job Applicants	49
Difference Between High Performers and Lesser Achievers	49
Hints for Interviewing Applicants	50
Questions That Are Considered Illegal	50
Interview Practice Evaluation Form	51
Job Search Contacts	53
Documenting Your Job Search	54
Job Search Contact Sheet	55
References	57