Electronic Surveillance Techniques

Length: 3 Days (24 hours)

A major part of an extended criminal investigation normally involves the use of some type of electronic surveillance equipment. Usually, however, the only training that investigators receive is a brief overview of the equipment by the manufacturer at the time of purchase.

This course will teach you the basic operation of electronic surveillance equipment and discuss how the equipment can be utilized in an investigation. The class will be structured for classroom lecture in the mornings and "hands-on" practical exercises in the afternoon. The exercises will allow students to select the appropriate equipment, to practice installation procedures, to monitor the chosen equipment and to evaluate the results.

Topics include:

Audio Legal Issues

- Should I record?
- Is the recording legal?
- Audio formats

Radio Frequency and Antennas

- How does sound travel?
- What is radio frequency?
- Obtaining the best reception
- Avoiding potential problems
- Wide band vs. narrow band

Video Legal Issues

- Applicable laws
- Video formats

Room-to-Room Video Installation

- Required equipment
- Setting up target and monitoring rooms
- Practical tips

Body Worn and Vehicle Video

- Required equipment
- Benefits and drawbacks
- Practical tips

• BRING OUR TRAINING TO YOUR AGENCY •

The Public Safety Institute (PSI) can assist you in presenting classes at your agency or training facility. By holding classes at your facility you reduce your training costs while maintaining the same high quality, professional training you have come to expect from PSI.

The Public Safety Institute provides:

- Highly qualified instructors who are experts in their given specialties
- A certificate of completion for each student who successfully completes the course
- Technical assistance required to prepare, conduct and evaluate each program
- All student reference materials

In most cases, your agency need only provide:

- A classroom capable of seating the attendees
- Audio and visual equipment for our instructors

All programs can be presented at your location. For details on cost-effective, co-sponsored programs call us at:
