Blood Pattern Analysis

Length: 4 Days (32 hours)

This course will give you the knowledge and skills to properly document, preserve, and collect bloodstain evidence left at a crime scene and analyze the evidence to help determine what happened.

You will learn about the different types of blood spatters, how they are made, and what they reveal. You will also learn how to analyze the patterns to help determine the sequence of events that occurred.

Topics include:

- Differentiating between different types of impact blood spatter
- Using impact angles to determine point(s) of origin
- Recognizing low velocity blood spatter
- Determining the direction of travel of the suspect/victim
- Recognizing bloodstains deposited on ceilings or walls
- Differentiating between contact and smeared bloodstain patterns
- Determining the source of contact and smeared bloodstain patterns
- Differentiating between projected blood and free-falling blood
- Determining the relative degree of force required to produce a bloodstain pattern
- Determining the height of the impact site using point(s) of convergence
- Determining the distance of the impact site from the wall using point(s) of convergence
- Determining the number of forceful impacts
- Determining the location(s) and orientation(s) of persons and/or objects
- Determining the movement of persons and objects during, and following, the bloodshed

• BRING OUR TRAINING TO YOUR AGENCY •

The Public Safety Institute (PSI) can assist you in presenting classes at your agency or training facility. By holding classes at your facility you reduce your training costs while maintaining the same high quality, professional training you have come to expect from PSI.

The Public Safety Institute provides:

- Highly qualified instructors who are experts in their given specialties
- A certificate of completion for each student who successfully completes the course
- Technical assistance required to prepare, conduct and evaluate each program
- All student reference materials

In most cases, your agency need only provide:

- A classroom capable of seating the attendees
- Audio and visual equipment for our instructors

All programs can be presented at your location. For details on cost-effective, co-sponsored programs call us at:
